
Chris Clark, CPA

Managing Partner, DFW Practice Unit | FORVIS Mazars

Chris is the Managing Partner of Forvis Mazars' DFW practice unit overseeing operations in the Dallas, Fort Worth and Waco offices. He leads a group of 35 partners and managing directors and a team of 300 professionals across multiple sectors in the audit, tax and consulting service lines. In this role, he is responsible for strategy execution, resource allocation, market expansion, and ensuring his team delivers on the firm's client experience commitment.

In addition to his enterprise leadership role, Chris brings has more than two decades of experience advising healthcare organizations on financial performance, governance, and strategic planning, with a deep emphasis in safety net hospitals and Texas hospital districts. He is a past board member and board president of the Lone Star Chapter of the Healthcare Financial Management Association and prior to becoming Managing Partner, served as Healthcare Regional Industry Leader for the firm's Southwest Region.

In his support of the Dallas community, Chris is a past board member and board president of Prism Health North Texas and past board member and treasurer of the Texas Division of the ALS Association. He currently serves as board member of the Dallas Chapter of Junior Achievement and the Dallas Division of the American Heart Association. He and his wife Jennifer are co-chairs of the AHA's Cotes du Coeur campaign for 2026. They also chaired the 2025 campaign. Chris is also an active member of the Dallas Regional Chamber.

Chris and Jennifer have one son, Austin, who is a sophomore at the University of Arkansas and one daughter, Ainsley, who is a high school senior who will be attending the University of Texas in the fall of 2026.

Chris holds a B.B.A. in Accounting from the University of Central Arkansas and is a licensed CPA in Texas.